Howqua Camp 2015

What to Bring ...

Bags must be a soft sided, duffle bag - no suitcases or hard framed backpacks.
Bags must not be heavier than 12kg.
All bags and sleeping bags are to be kept separate and must be clearly labelled.

Essential Items:

- Sleeping bag
- A single fitted sheet for hygiene purposes
- Winter pyjamas
- Multiple pairs of tracksuit pants, jeans or other long pants
- Multiple warm jumpers/windcheaters
- Multiple T-Shirts and/or Skivvies
- Hat, beanie, gloves and scarf
- Lip Balm (Sluttes, etc.)
- An old outfit, including shoes, that won’t matter if they get covered in mud during the survivor obstacle course - Hint: you may never want to wear them again!
- Multiple plastic bags for dirty or wet clothes and shoes
- Two bath towels
- Toiletries (toothbrush, toothpaste, hairbrush, soap, shampoo, roll on deodorant, etc)

Optional Items:

- Slippers
- Pencil case
- A good book for some quiet time
- Hair dryer (no straighteners)
- Small battery operated clock (for night times)
- A favourite teddy or stuffed toy

Items to be packed in your Day Pack:

- Lunch and snacks for Day One
- A water bottle that is reusable and clearly named is a must!

  It is a Camp Howqua requirement.

Please note:

- Students are NOT to bring money, mobile phones, any electrical devices, lollies or snacks.
- Aerosol cans (deodorant, hairspray, etc.) CANNOT be used, due to Camp Howqua restrictions.
- Williamstown North Primary School and Camp Howqua do not take any responsibility for cameras or any other valuables that you choose to bring with you to camp.

One of the nights at Camp will be a movie/games night. If you do not feel comfortable with your child watching a movie that is rated PG, please advise their class teacher prior to Monday 27th July 2015.
We hope that you are all looking forward to this camp as much as we are and can not wait for a fun filled adventure packed week!
